THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART OFFERS TWO SPRING COURSES FOR MEMBERS

Edward B. Henning, Associate Curator of Education at The Cleveland Museum of Art will give a course on ROMANTICISM IN THE ARTS for members of the Museum. It will consist of three lectures on consecutive Tuesdays beginning April 7 at 3:30. The course will be a survey of the Romantic painting, music and literature of the 19th century in which the arts will be compared and related to the social background of the period.

Another course for members JAPANESE FLOWER ARRANGEMENT will be given by Margaret F. Marcus, Curatorial Research Assistant at the Museum. This course will begin on Tuesday April 7 at 10:30 and run through the following five Tuesdays. Traditional modes and the modern manner of flower arrangement will be discussed aided by lantern slides and demonstrations of techniques. There will be an opportunity for members to make arrangements with their own vases of foliage.

Registration for the classes is limited to $10.00 or higher memberships of the Museum. Interested persons may call the Department of Education at the Museum, Garfield 1-7340 to register and for further information.
